Harry,
We'll be reviewing the material that Craig sent on Friday afternoon. At this point, we don't need a conference call/meeting on today (Monday) as we are just getting the information. I will be on travel for another site on Tuesday and Wednesday. I will get back with you on Thursday if the team has any questions.

Thanks,

Stacey,
Just to follow up on Craig's email to you, and others, regarding the need to talk through any further questions on Monday. I hope, if there is a need for further clarity, that we can arrange to get together by conference call Monday afternoon to discuss any questions that your team might have on the information Craig provided this afternoon. I look forward to your response.
Best regards,
Harry
